Programme.

5th. Objects and aims of the order. Rev. T. G. Fallin and others. 6th. Supper for Red Men and their families. Committee.

S. E. Mo. Teachers' Association.

The Southeast Missouri Teachers' Association will meet at Cape Girardeau, Mo., next year on Oct. 26-27-28. The officers of the assn. are: Pres. W. L. Johns, Flat River; 1st. Vice Pres. Supt. Aulsberry, Perryville; 2nd. Vice Pres. A. D. Simpson, Charleston; 3rd. Vice Pres. O. L. Hargrove, Hayti; Treas. Alice Goodin, DeSoto; R. R. Secy. R. S. Douglas, Cape Girardeau.

Two hundred and fifty teachers were present. Everybody in attendance was highly pleased, for having been there; and there being good live discussions in the sessions, and plenty of entertainment after the sessions.

The people of Fredericktown are a very hospitable people, and did every thing possible to have the teachers enjoy themselves.

Quite a number of Hayti people were summoned to Caruthersville Monday for jury services, one of the number having been summons every court during the past year. Some of our officers should make out a new list.

Good fresh, clean meats, good weights and courteous treatment is the motto at Chas. Morgan's butcher shop. 37tf

Talk about climate, old Missouri is getting there with both feet. Now, at this time, Dec. 2nd, 1909, green figs are hanging on the tree in Hayti, and the mullein stalks are blooming in the lane, while the dandelion are looking very, very fine.

The four year old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Davis died last Friday morning. On the ninth of last February the child swallowed some concentrated lye, and for a long time battled for life, only to loose it after nearly a year.

J. L. Dorris has received some samples of Scotch cassimeres, in Arctic grey colorings, from which they are making the very latest things in men's wear.

The new Christian church is now rapidly nearing completion, and will be quite a convenience to the members, who have been holding services in the city hall. The members will greatly appreciate any donations toward completing the church.

Ladies' and gents' tailoring, dyeing, cleaning, altering, pressing and repairing done and satisfaction guaranteed. Prices reasonable. At my residence. Mrs. J. M. Argo. 2tf

Mrs. John T. Buckley remembered the Editor's wife with a nice Thanksgiving dinner, which was greatly appreciated. Mrs. York had been seriously ill for two months, and was just getting to the point of recovery where a wholesome dinner could be appreciated.

Don't forget your coal. Winter and cold weather is right on you. Better be prepared. Get your coal now, while we have it, and plenty of time to haul it. Leave orders at Hayti Storage or Chas. Morgan's butcher shop.

As much as we regret it, we are compelled to offer our readers an apology this week for the short-comings of the Herald, on account of waiting for advertising copy. We are sorry these delays happen, but it seems they are

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Almost every day we receive letters from the people in every part of the country, but of course it would be a breach of courtesy to publish the writers' names. This week we have four letters, two of them from foremost business men and one from the brightest legal light in the county, and feeling grateful that our efforts are appreciated by such good and substantial citizens, we publish the body of the letters:

Caruthersville, Mo., Nov. 27, 1909.

Friend Will: Inclosed find $1 for a clean-cut paper, especially adapted for civil rights and liberal views, where no blue laws abide and everybody gets a square deal. May the watchword for the Herald be "upward and onward."

Concord, Mo., Nov. 18, 1909.

Wm. York, Hayti, Mo.

Dear Sir: I inclose $1.00 to pay for the Herald for the next twelve months. The paper suits me OK.

Respectfully,

Caruthersville, Mo., Nov. 25, 1909.

Mr. Will York, Hayti, Mo.

Dear Will: Find inclosed my $1. I like the way you "speak out in meeting," and do this because I like to encourage, even in this small way, a man who, when he has anything to say, says it, without fear or favor.

Sincerely yours,

Caruthersville, Mo., Nov. 29, 1909.

Wm. York, Hayti, Mo.

Dear Sir: I am pleased with the style of matter in your last issue.

Yours truly,

hard to avoid, so we will hereafter try to invoke our rule not to accept advertising after 7 a. m. Tuesdays, but better service can be given when advertising copy reaches us Thursday, Friday, Saturday or Monday morning. No job printing will be done on Mondays, Tuesdays or Wednesdays. Those days are devoted to the paper.

If you are a subscriber, and fail to get your paper, let us know at once. We have recently transferred to a new book, and possibly might make a mistake and leave a name off. It is very easy to make a mistake. So let us know promptly, and we will make it right.

The following were among our subscribers this week: A. C. LaForge, Caruthersville, Mrs. Bertha Brownfield, Marshal, Michigan, and Collin Morgan, Jas. W. Gaither, R. O. West and Mrs. A. Hoge, Hayti. Some how or other, the Herald just will grow.

Much valuable matter is unavoidably left out this week, on account of not having time to handle it. We hope no one will think hard of us. This is what is known as a "one-man shop," and we can only do so much. After this week we will stick to our rules closer and try to do better.

The following young people attended church at the Dowd school house Sunday night: Mr. and Mrs. Herold, Misses Madge Trainor, Pearl Reed, Lela Gray and Pauline Thrower, and Messrs Ernest Johnson, Joe Perkins, Chas. Trainor and Harry Schilling, also C. J. Elkins and Miss Ada Dowdy.

Epilepsy, Fits

"My son was cured of a very bad case of epilepsy with Dr. Miles' Nervine."

MRS. D. BAKER, Cleveland, O.

"My little daughter who was afflicted with St. Vitus' Dance is now entirely well after taking Dr. Miles' Nervine only four months."

MRS. C. G. BENNETT, Alma, Mich.

Epilepsy, Fits, St. Vitus' Dance and Spasms, are all nervous diseases. They have been cured in so many instances with Dr. Miles' Nervine that it is reasonable to conclude that it is almost sure to cure you. With nervous diseases of a severe type, persistent use has almost invariably resulted in a complete cure or lasting benefits, worth many times the cost of the remedy. The best evidence you can get of its merits is to write to those who have used it. Get a bottle from your druggist. Take it all according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.
